In addition to the above documents which should be submitted online, the following document(s) must be received by the appropriate contact person by each deadline.

- Health Certificate (other than COVID-19)
International students who have passed the entrance exam and whose registered enrollment period will be three months or longer are required to have the health certificate completed and signed by a physician within the three-month period before the designated date of entrance to Tokyo Tech (or within the three-month period before their planned date of arrival in Japan, if their arrival will be later than the date of entrance). In addition, we request that it be submitted prior to the designated date of entrance (or prior to arriving in Japan if the arrival will be later than the date of entrance). Note that all expenses for this shall be borne by the students. Please cooperate with our preventive measures against various infectious diseases that could cross international borders to protect your health and wellness and that of your colleagues.
For more details, please refer to the following website;
<https://www.titech.ac.jp/english/student-support/prospective-students/admitted/international-infection>
- Verification Documents of your Financial Status in English
Financial Status Verification* might be required as part of the application process for the Certificate of Eligibility (COE), which is the documentation used to obtain a visa to study in Japan. You will be notified by the contact person for the Exchange Program of Tokyo Tech in case the documents are needed to submit.

*For example, a bank statement (which verifies the available balance in the account) for you or your financial supporter; or a scholarship certificate (if any). If there is not an English version of these documents, you should attach a certified English translation with a signature of the translator and the date of translation.

*Note: In addition to the online submission of the above documents, Tokyo Tech may request submission of originals for selection, visa application, etc.
